CONT'D

The Citadel Noon Gun by Rick Doelle (8:30)

Since 1745 it has guarded against attacks. Everyday at noon they fire the cannon with a guide describing what is happening. They do a routine check to ensure there are no small rocks or birds nests before firing. They use 1 lb of black powder as opposed to several pounds as not to shatter the windows of the houses below while they give everyone a warning.

Joe Blow #6 by Alex Szatmary

The video starts with Alex getting ready for bed putting a rifle under his pillow. It ends with a shootout involving himself using trick photography.

Southern China Lion Pole Dancing by Ben Andrews (9:08)

Pole dancing in dragon costumes started many years ago. Many areas have their own versions of life like dragons dancing on top of poles. Missteps are always part of the act to add excitement. The lion approaches and chews an envelope but keeps the money. The costumes are specially made for each person. After the dance the lion visits the shrine. One of the guys in the video had actually injured himself.

COFFEE BREAK:

The coffee break brought a lot of interesting conversation, great snacks and good coffee and tea. We want to thank Paula for bringing the snacks and preparing the coffee and tea. Tonight, the 50/50 draw was won by Anne Thompson

Paula picked the worse time to ask the ultimate question.

Fred, George, Keith & Rick decide to watch movies the manly way....standing.

Alex forgot where the mic is.

VERY IMPORTANT

Just a reminder that all video lengths MUST be kept to no more than 10 to minutes (12 minutes max). If the video is longer, then a portion shall be shown and the rest of it will be shown at the next meeting. There may be exceptions but that will be decided at the time.

Please do not try to “sneak” in one that is longer than twelve minutes unless special permission is given. If the video is longer than the minimum, any of the executive members has the obligation to tell the AV person to stop the video. In which case only half will be shown and the other half will be shown next meeting. No club member can override this decision. We need to be able to show as many videos from the members as possible and keep the subjects fresh and new. It would not be fair to keep showing videos with the same subject content repeatedly.
