The coffee break brought a lot of interesting conversation, great snacks and good coffee and tea. Let's all thank Paula for her wonderful work in providing the goodies, coffee and tea for our meetings.

Portrait of a City by Joe Bocshler (1.40 mins)

An older film shot many years ago by Jon Soyka's hero & mentor. It starts from the Native American's in Hamilton 300 years ago back in 1669 right up to the bus lines, rail lines to Niagara Falls, and the Wineries. We see the sunken gardens, RBG gardens, the Jockey Club now Centre Mall and the out door Farmer's Market. Hamilton is many things including the Steel Industry and the Waterfall Capital of Canada.

The new digs

Jon cannot believe he got the projector working that quickly

Edith Anne AKA Fred found his new spot. And that's the truth Pffffffttt

The Magnificent Manual by Eckhard Kries

Jim Small gives a speech on The Magnificent Mangwell about safety first. The Magnificent Mangwell prepares for his greatest challenge however things don't go well when the doors can't be opened when he is propelled down the rollers, through the closed door right out of his outfit and stuck on a fence.

See you all next month. Same bat time. Same bat channel. And hopefully the weather will be better and we'll have a larger turnout.

Happy filmmaking everyone.

VERY IMPORTANT

Just a reminder that all video lengths MUST be kept to no more than 10 to minutes (12 minutes max). If the video is longer, then a portion shall be shown and the rest of it will be shown at the next meeting. There may be exceptions but that will be decided at the time.

Please do not try to “sneak” in one that is longer than twelve minutes unless special permission is given. If the video is longer than the minimum, any of the executive members has the obligation to tell the AV person to stop the video. In which case only half will be shown and the other half will be shown next meeting. No club member can override this decision. We need to be able to show as many videos from the members as possible and keep the subjects fresh and new. It would not be fair to keep showing videos with the same subject content repeatedly.
