VIDEOS SHOWN THIS WEEK:

Race Night by Rick Doelle (3:00)

A video by Rick set to the music of William Tell Overture taken at Flamboro Downs the previous week showing the behind the scenes of how the track is run and those who run it. I envisioned The Lone Ranger the entire time.

The Bowed Psaltery by Nestor Rosa (5:20)

Nestor shows us how to tune a Bowed Psaltery, which is a combination of a harp, piano & violin. The white keys are on one side and the black keys are on the other side. The origin of the instrument goes back as far as 1,200 appearing in the 1920's elsewhere. Who knew Nestor was so musical?

Canyon Land by Harold Cosgrove (6 mins)

The Grand Canyon cannot be described, it must be experienced. It is a mile deep, 18 miles rim to rim and there is a 30 degree difference at the bottom from the top. Visitors can drive, fly in or even take the train to the top of the Canyon. First you spend a night at the El Tovar hotel overlooking it. A favourite way down is by donkey while others can go down by helicopter. A favourite hotel at the bottom is the Phantom Ranch

Meetings held the 1st Thursday every month at the Knights of Columbus – 222 Queenston Rd., Hamilton
Videomaking Basics – 7:00 p.m., • Regular Meeting – 7:30 p.m.

CONT'D

The rapids in the Colorado river is a 2 week trip. A great geological miracle.

Heavy Fog Above Beamer by Miro Kantarsky (9:09 mins)

From a cliff above the town you can see the birds, vultures, trees, fog and hear the coyotes & wolves. Miro decides to take a drive up to the top of the escarpment in the fog despite people telling him not to do it. After a walk through the woods and listening to the howls, a very worried Miro decides to head back to his vehicle rather quickly before he becomes their next meal.

COFFEE BREAK:

The coffee break brought a lot of interesting conversation, great snacks and good coffee and tea. Let's all thank Paula for her wonderful work in providing the goodies, coffee and tea for our meetings...and Timmie's!!!

Chris talked about the difference between working in theatre as opposed to working in film.

Tonight's 50/50 draw was won by Evelyn Rosa

The Idol's Eye by Eckhard Kries (16:00)

A film shot back in 1987 about a husband & wife finding a cursed idol. Starring Fred Briggs & Marlene Smith. Except for them, everyone that comes in contact with it has bad luck or ends up dead. The film also featured a supporting role by Jim Small.

Stewie's Sunday Special by Miro Kantarsky (2:50)

Miro & his wife take their dog Stewie out for his annual Sunday drive to McDonald's for dinner which always has an affect on Stewie and not for the better.

Miro checks his heart rate after watching Fog Above Beamer

No one in the audience even noticed that Spider-Man removed his mask

Jim pretends he's wearing his ID badge

The Picnic by Paula Cutulle

Paula's second video done as a black & white comedy with her nephew as he gets an area ready for a picnic only for her not to show up leaving him heart broken. Lots of practical on set effects.

See you all next month. Same bat time. Same bat channel.

Happy filmmaking everyone.

George begs Miro for a chance to sing Karaoke

Jon's statement includes not getting Paul a cup of coffee for him

We're not sure what Nestor did this time but...

Henry just realized how strong his coffee is.

Cathy congratulates Evelyn on winning the 50/50 draw

Our day at the races

Bring on the buffet

Without looking, Ernest tries desperately to get Jon & Anne to look at the camera

My future's so bright, I gotta wear shades

Paula doesn't realize it but Nestor & Keith are toasting being at the manly man's table.

VERY IMPORTANT

Just a reminder that all video lengths MUST be kept to no more than 10 to minutes (12 minutes max). If the video is longer, then a portion shall be shown and the rest of it will be shown at the next meeting. There may be exceptions but that will be decided at the time.

Please do not try to “sneak” in one that is longer than twelve minutes unless special permission is given. If the video is longer than the minimum, any of the executive members has the obligation to tell the AV person to stop the video. In which case only half will be shown and the other half will be shown next meeting. No club member can override this decision. We need to be able to show as many videos from the members as possible and keep the subjects fresh and new. It would not be fair to keep showing videos with the same subject content repeatedly.
