Welcome everyone to another evening of lots of great videos, making up for last month.

The MC for tonight is Jon Soyka

Upcoming MC's TBA

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Our annual AGM is in April. There are at least 2 terms that are up if anyone is interested.

The Executive is looking into another place for the banquet. Ray Bayliss is checking out to see if the room at the Bedrock Bistro is available. It is.

Jon talked about new Canadian rules as far as using Copyrighted content on YouTube is concerned. Breaking certain rules can be costly. $500.00 - 20,000.00

Just a reminder of the videos to do. A one minute video with a twist. And one where you try different post production colouring of the video. More blues, greens, bleaching.

The 15 second commercials:

The Secure Coffee Lids by Dan Baker
Three different types of coffee cups, Timmie's, McDonald's & Starbuck's all rotating around. Dan deliberately painted the lids for a more secure look.

Coffee Lids by Dan Baker
Two older people on a bench talking. Done in stop motion animation.

Spill Stopper by Rick Doelle
Rick sells a product (movie magic) where the lid doesn't come off when the mug is knocked over.

Hamilton Literacy Council by Rick Doelle
A short video on how to help people read.

Meetings held the 1st Thursday every month at the Knights of Columbus – 222 Queenston Rd., Hamilton
Videomaking Basics – 7:00 p.m., • Regular Meeting – 7:30 p.m.

HVFM by Harold Cosgrove (2 mins)

Harold used the footage of a German movie about Hitler and added in his own subtitles to fit the movie. He tried to offend everyone. Even spelling Ray's last name as Baliss.

The White Stork of Europe by Eckhard Kries

The storks return to the same nests every year. Some nests are known to weigh up to 1,000 lbs. The stork population has declined significantly over the years.

Snowflakes by Dan Copeland (3 mins)

Dan starts off outside catching snowflakes outside. He takes them inside & photographs & videotapes them under a microscope like Jack Carey used to.

In the Wake of the Golden Hind by Miro Kantarsky (7 mins)

Miro was looking for his next project when he came upon a boat on his mantle.

He chose an to do one on an Englishman by the name of Sir Francis Drake who was a bit of a misfit. The Golden Hind was the only ship to survive the trip to the Caribbean.

COFFEE BREAK

The coffee break brought a lot of interesting conversation, great snacks and good coffee and tea. Let's all thank Paula for her wonderful work in providing the goodies, coffee and tea for our meetings. Jim Small won the 50/50 draw. Jon Soyka...did not.

Sturdy Stem by Paula Cutulle

A new wine glass with a longer stem.

10 Second Movie by Jim Small

He was told to do a movie with a beginning & a middle and an end. He did. It was different.

Jon tries out his new Tiger Cat cheer leading moves

Rick doesn't realize he's grown another head out of his shoulder.

Gerry hopes no one is looking while he enjoys his drink.

ONGUIAAHRA by Miro Kantarsky
Don't ask me to say that title fast 3 times. Several different shots of Niagara Falls.

Back house by Jim Small
An older film shot in 1982. Several people sitting around a fireplace talking about the old Pioneer Cemetery. Dorothy noticed something after drinking the well water. Others felt there were people watching them.

Fun In Toronto by Miro Kantarsky (3 mins)
Miro makes a flight simulator film about Toronto as we see the plane flying near the CN tower.

Harold is still trying to get attention to his new choppers

Dan is trying to remember which direction the camera is.

Jon is so happy. He thinks he met Santa.

Paula is planning retaliation for Ray's photobomb.

Paul isn't letting anyone near the coffee & tea until it's ready

Jon decided he was winning the 50/50 ticket one way or the other.

Eckhard insists his film canisters are this big because his movies are huge.

See every one next month. Same bat time, same bat channel
