Welcome everyone to another evening of great videos.

The MC for tonight is Jon...again

Upcoming MC's TBA

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

John Valdemanis brought his friend Nick. Didn't get the last name, sorry. David Picco showed up after a many years of not being here. I didn't recognize him at first. I'm so ashamed.

Paula talked about a film Jon did about the Auchmar house on West 5th & Fennell.

Jon talked briefly about his project, "The Grand River project" with one burning question. Where's Miro tonight?

Our annual Christmas party is in December. Everyone remember to bring goodies. Those bringing something can you let Ray know what you're bringing so I get it right in the newsletter.

GENERAL FILMS:

Highway of Heroes by Dan Copeland (4 mins)

A music video about the Highway of Heroes on the 401 when they bring the bodies to Toronto from Trenton. Even the American's were impressed that we honour them.

Lincoln Line Orchard's by Dan Baker (2:26 mins)

Open Tuesday-Saturday 8 - 6 pm on Regional Rd 20 all year round. They have all types of fruits, pies & more pies, did I mention pies?

Sites Along The Grand River by Rick Doelle (13 mins)

Starts with shots of the Grand River, Alexander Graham Bell's home, Afterwards we see Pauline Johnson's childhood home. We see the Caledonia dam in the winter time. Ruthven Park was the home of the Thompson family. The mansion was finished in 1847 with many original finishing's. Muddy is a 50ft statue of a catfish in Dunnville, ON. RCAF #6 is located in Dunnville. Lots of mementos & airplanes there. The location was used as a movie set for the film Amelia starring Hilary Swank. The Cairn in Fort Maitland was erected in 2005.

As you can see Lake Erie & Grand River are frozen and require an ice breaker to keep it open.

Lonesome Jack by Dan Baker (2:30 mins)
A neat little stop motion film with a pumpkin playing the fiddle to other pumpkins in the field.

COFFEE BREAK:

Really good sweet cake & coffee. The 50/50 draw was won by David Picco....and not Jon.

Billy & the Bluejay by Bob Bayne (5 mins)
An animation from Bob Bayne of the Ottawa club about a boy and his family that moves away. He attempts to make friends. We were only shown a small part so we don't know how it ends.

Paul mentioned we are collecting can goods for donation during the Christmas party.

Auchmar- The War Story by Jon Soyka (40mins?)
RCAF #2 used it as a burn hospital in 1943. First it was the Buchanan house, later the Young house. Bill Carey was one of the first patients moved from Toronto to Hamilton. Dean Taylor was another former patient. Gardening & tree cutting was considered therapy for the muscles. Nurse Hazel Hughes was brought in from Toronto. Hot wax treatment was to help distribute blood. Operations were not done at Auchmar. The winter of '44 really snowed them in. It also shut down most of the city. The patients played just about every sport there you could think of. Jon said afterwards that the man that commissioned him to do the video didn't tell him there were one or two nurses he could have interviewed and that they could have filmed inside the Auchmar building. They also could have used the original vinyl records by paying a very small Cathy likes the new yellow table. It brings out the blue in her eyes.

Keith tries desperately to find out what's different about Carolyn.

Dave Picco (middle) was overjoyed when he thought he was meeting Paul Sr. from American Chopper only to discover it was Ray Bayliss and his badly grown beard.

fee rather than reproducing all the music.

While going over every single shot, Rick just pretended to fall asleep.

Come on everyone let's get out there and make some great videos. We'll see you all again

Dan decided he would just rather watch the videos ahead of everyone else on YouTube.

Dave Picco won the 50/50 draw...if he can keep it away from Jon Soyka who appeared out of nowhere.
