Welcome back everyone, after 2 months we're still here. Tonight we finally viewed the videos we shot in June. We welcomed John Michael Pellizzari back. Unfortunately his friend Aminda Watson wasn't able to make it.

John was the MC for the evening. Paula mentioned that the rent from Knights of Columbus has gone from $99.00 to $170.00 a month. There was talk about updating the Playstation to something that can stream meetings.

John Michael said that he enjoyed everyone's filming techniques in June. He thought everything went smoothly.

#1- Covert meeting by Rick Doelle
Rick stated that he shot the scene twice but kept getting his reflection in the window and decided to use the second one with close ups & posters.

#2 - A Conspiratorial Discussion by Ray Bayliss

Ray shot the video 3 times. First on Aminda, then on John & finally a wide 2 shot including a closeup of Aminda producing the paper. Also included was a shot of them in a digital alley done in Lightwave & Adobe After Effects.

Paula is happy all these months away she still remembers who she is.

Meetings held the 1st Monday every month at the St. Matthew's Anglican church – 126-136 Plains Rd E Rd., Burlington, ON

#3 - Cons-Piracy by Alex Szatmary

Alex started off the video with a couple of shots in the city then a quick zoom into our two actors. Alex chose to film from the other side of the glass & superimpose cars going by. He then used a pen tool & drew around the window & masked them out.

#4 - by Paul Bentley

Paul decided to go simpler route with one shot. The ending was a surprise. I'm sure not many expected that.

COFFEE BREAK

Our first coffee break Post Covid where we could have refreshments. Paula was the hostess handing out coffee & doughnuts. Paula also won the 50/50 draw. Jon did not.

Light Painting by Dan Copeland

Dan's video provided shots of cities at night, different nebulas, galaxies and shots of the moon.

Jon & John, the two finalist in the HVFM beard contest

And the winner is....

At first glance I thought Dave Stewart was going out of Barry's head

Dave is wishing he hadn't had any doughnuts

Dan decided to play hide & seek. We still see him.

Jon is not letting anyone touch the first doughnut he grabbed.

Paula & Cathy during the 50/50 draw.

*Guess who won the 50/50 draw?
Guess who didn't?*

Hopefully everyone will go out & shoot some videos.

And we'll see you all again

Monday October 3rd.
