GENERAL FILMS

Arches by Bob Makara (12 mins)

Many natural arches are in southern Utah, but there are also many in Kentucky.

The longest natural arch is 75 ft. One gentleman out for a walk brought his dog. It walked along the paths but had trouble navigating the stairs as it only had 3 legs. It lost it's right front leg to cancer and no one wanted him. Most dogs & cats adapt quickly to an amputation with no trouble. Angel arch, Sky arch & Princess arch were 3 of many arches in the area. Later they took a drive over to Rock bridge.

Our guests Andris Anderson & Bob Makara from Detroit.

The Ring by Ray Bayliss (4:28 mins)

Filmed in 2016 at our annual picnic in Battlefield park. We have what is known as a bag night. Every team is given a bag of props to use in the film. Also different camera angles are to be used and the director must appear. Done as a silent movie, a woman is waiting for her boyfriend to show up at the park meanwhile he's in the washroom getting ready and accidentally gets a bag stuck on his head and in his mouth and when he goes to approach her he is chased away.

Jon sits on Paula's lap while she licks his shoulder.

Autumn Leaves by Paula Cutulle (4 mins)

Taken on an autumn day starting with the morning window shot. Afterwards Paula goes for a drive. The video ends with a window shot. This was filmed during a competition Jon had set up with everyone using cell phones in 2018.

Another guest Imram Qureshi

Angels in the Midst by Paul Bentley (8 mins)

A video with Anne Thompson preparing tons of food for Saturday morning to feed people in Gore Park. She starts cooking at 2 am. Anne started 5 years ago with 3 people feeding 30 people to now serving over 700 people. Everything is subsidized by donations.

Vow of Obedience by Jon Soyka (22 mins showing 10 mins)
Jon did not do the filming. He did the audio. The first part was filmed at the Ukrainian National Church in Grimsby. The interview with Brother Bart was filmed in Grimsby, ON. He didn't become a priest but he liked farming. They had a huge auction, lots of cars. The father died shortly afterwards. The barn unfortunately burned down some time later.
