Locked In The Church by Ray Bayliss

Rick & Cathy play workers cleaning up in the church kitchen. They go to leave and realize the doors are all locked from the outside except one. It's locked from the inside meaning, they're not alone. As they search for another door for a way out they encounter the man in the mask forcing them to flee & hide. It doesn't end well for the mad man & they finally get out of the church.

Ray is wishing he'd borrowed Paul's cap.

Fun With Terror by Paul Bentley

Dave & Anne are closing down the hall for the night. They realize they are locked in. They come face to face with what looks like the grim reaper who chases them throughout the church. They finally get a set of overhead doors open but he is there waiting for them. After Dave hits him several times he screams "It's me Ben, it's just a joke. A little behind the scenes for this film. While shooting the scene by the door, no one realized the staff was still there. When they heard Anne screaming they all came running. The second thing that happened was Ben ran into a large valve hurting his shoulder causing him to stop for a few minutes.

Rick notices that too.

COFFEE BREAK

Anne wasn't able to make the meeting but she had stuff put out in advance. Cathy won the 50/50 draw...again.
