ANNOUNCEMENTS

A bit of sad news to start off with. One of our (former) members George Gerula passed away this week. Not much details to pass on unfortunately. We will miss him.

Paul is still working on the HVFM website to make it mobile friendly as a lot of members & other people use their phones rather than a computer.

Anne was the recipient of the Bunny Upton award for all her hard work organizing the food & finding the hall for us.

Tonight we viewed the films shot in July at our annual picnic.

Happy Birthday? by Ray Bayliss

Paul plays a man celebrates his birthday in the park with a few friends, Dave, Rick & Cathy revealing his wife has run off with his younger brother because he has better hair.

Our Sweet Phillippe: A Tragic Love Story by Paul Bentley

Anne plays a woman that overreacts when she finds out her lover is dead. Irene & Lori play her two friends who are not showing her any compassion and tell her to stop overreacting. Ben plays Detective Dick who tries to get to the bottom of it.

Ben presents the Bunny Upton award to Anne for all her hard work organizing the food & finding the hall for us.

GENERAL FILMS

911 by Ray Bayliss

Based on actual phone calls to a 911 office in Tennessee. Some people complaining about everything from being chased by the police to a man forgetting he ate his sandwich.

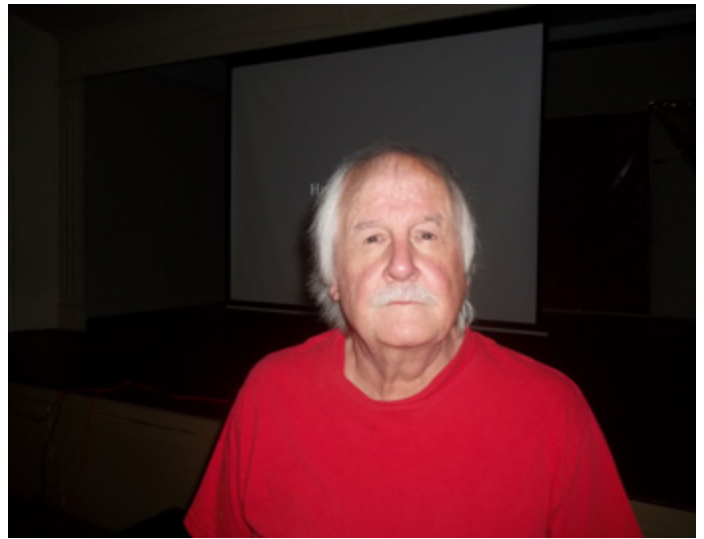

A Trip To Venice (not the real title) by Ken Davy

A very in depth look at Venice, Italy during a trip that Ken made. Most of Venice hasn't change in over a thousand years and is still standing. A remarkable feat of engineering.

COFFEE BREAK

Excellent food as always from Anne. Cathy won the 50/50 draw...again.

Keep the videos coming.

Just a few pictures of George. We will miss him down in the front row.
