Welcome back everyone to another evening of videos. Tonight's MC was Paul.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The meeting started a little late due to problems with the sound system. Paul promises to have that sorted out soon. Paul talked about getting new cables. He also talked about using VINO AI to help clear up sound on some videos.

Next month will be our annual June dinner. We will be meeting at the Mandarin on Upper James June 1st at 7:00 pm. We probably won't go back to the hall afterwards.

GENERAL FILMS

Seniors Day on St. Patrick's Day by Paul Bentley

Paul fixed the audio on this video using VINO AI.

Anne narrates this video on Senior's day with a luncheon at Faith United Church. They also do line dancing & socializing. This is their fourth month.

I caught them again. They just can't seem to eat in peace.

Paul proves to Anne that he can lift higher with one hand.

Meetings held the 1st Monday every month at the Faith United church – 842 Main St E.,
Hamilton, ON

The Afro-Canadian Caribbean Association of Hamilton by Paul Bentley

Paul fixed the audio on this video as well using VINO AI.

A video with Lloyd Turner the founder of The Afro-Canadian Caribbean Association of Hamilton & Evelyn Myrie the current President of the AACCA for eight years. Also we see a dance number from Anne Thompson. organization formed on January 10, 1979. Our creed is Unity, Strength and Progress. Therefore through its members ACCA strives to provide a vehicle for uniting all African, Canadian and Caribbean people residing in the Hamilton region.

Pie Day by Paul Bentley

Anne speaks at Pie Day which is an event where everyone is welcome no matter what your orientation is. There was many members of the LGBTQ community there. So many different pies to eat. They also ran Karaoke and Anne tested out her vocal pipes to the delight of everyone. WTG Anne.

Locked in the Church by Ray Bayliss

Ray re-edited the shot of Paul falling to make it quicker so he doesn't appear to be floating downward.

Two church workers are locked in a church with a murderer who has already killed the janitor and will kill again unless they can stop him.

Machu Picchu by Rick Doelle

A trip Rick made in 2017 to Machu Picchu. Machu Picchu is a 15th-century Inca citadel located in the Eastern Cordillera of southern Peru on a mountain ridge at 2,430 meters. Getting to Machu Picchu involves flying to Cusco, taking a train or bus to Aguas Calientes, and then taking a final bus or hiking to the site entrance. Or take a train from Ollantaytambo

Paul Bentley makes the 50/50 draw

Paul Bentley thought he heard his name winning but it was Paul Dovey.

CONT'D

(in the Sacred Valley) to Aguas Calientes, followed by a 30-minute shuttle bus to the ruins. It's amazing that the Spaniards never found it. Some of the buildings still have their roofs on. Rick went through the Temple of the Sun, the Temple of the Moon, the Temple of the Conдор and the Main Temple or Wayrana.

COFFEE BREAK

As per usual we don't have a set coffee break, but there was so much food. The 50/50 draw was won by Paul Dovey. Cathy didn't win this time.
